National Bushfire Recovery Agency

The Australian Government will establish a dedicated agency with an initial $2 billion for a recovery fund to coordinate a national response and help rebuild communities.

Priorities will include: primary producer grants for restocking, replanting and fencing, additional support for small businesses, grants to bushfire affected Local Government Areas, a mental health package for first responders and communities, support to attract tourists back to the regions, infrastructure projects to support economic, community and industry recovery and resilience, and measures to support the environment and native wildlife.

The funding is in addition to funding available under existing natural disaster support mechanisms.

Is there financial assistance available to people affected by the bushfires?

Australian Government Disaster Recovery Payment – a one-off payment of $1,000 for each eligible adult and $400 for each dependent child for people who have been injured, who've lost an immediate family member or whose home has been significantly damaged or destroyed.

Disaster Recovery Allowance – an income support payment for up to 13 weeks for people who have lost income as a direct result of the fires. The payment is the equivalent of the maximum rate of Newstart or Youth Allowance.

For information about payments and eligibility criteria go to humanservice.gov.au/disaster

How do I claim a Disaster Recovery Payment?

The fastest way to claim is by calling 180 22 66. The line is open from 8am to 8pm Monday to Friday and 8am to 5pm on Saturday and Sunday. These times are subject to change. The payment is generally in people's bank accounts within 24-48 hours.

What support is the Australian Defence Force providing to the bushfire response?

The bushfire crisis is the ADF's primary focus. Several thousand troops have been deployed, including land, sea and air assets.

To manage the response, a Two-Star Emergency ADF National Support Coordinator has been appointed to work with state and territory authorities. More details can be found at

<https://news.defence.gov.au/national/defence-boosts-bushfire-support>

I have been evacuated, but do not have anywhere to stay. What can I do?

In addition to local evacuation centres, Defence has opened bases from Brisbane to Adelaide for people needing short-term evacuation assistance.

A list of bases in each state can be found at:

www.news.defence.gov.au/national/defence-bases-open-to-evacuees

I live on Kangaroo Island and the fires have impacted our water supply. Is there assistance available?

The ADF is in the process of establishing a water purification and desalination system on Kangaroo Island to supplement drinking water supplies. Once operational, it will provide an additional 100,000 litres of purified water each day.

www.news.defence.gov.au/national/joining-forces-supply-purified-water

What are my communication options during an emergency?

In an emergency situation it is recommended people do not rely on a single form of communication.

Possible options include local radio, television, and state and territory emergency service websites or apps. For example, during emergency situations people can listen to ABC Local Radio to receive up-to-date warnings.

You should also consider downloading the Emergency+ app. This app uses GPS functionality built into smart phones to help a Triple Zero (000) caller provide critical location details required to mobilise emergency services.

It is important to conserve the battery life of mobile phones and have a backup for charging these devices should there be a power outage.

A portable transistor radio with a spare set of batteries can provide a valuable backup in the event there is a loss of mains power or mobile coverage.

I am having issues paying my energy bill.

If you are worried about your electricity bill, you should contact your electricity retailer. Electricity retailers are offering help including freezes on bills in affected areas and payment extensions.

Support for the agriculture sector

Bushfire affected farmers can access information, key contacts and assistance at www.farmhub.org.au/live-bushfire-assistance-key-contacts/

Rural Financial Counselling Service

The Rural Financial Counselling Service (RFCS) provides free financial counselling to primary producers, fishers, forest growers and small, related businesses, who are suffering financial hardship and have no alternative sources of impartial assistance. Please call the national referral hotline on 1800 686 175 or visit www.agriculture.gov.au/rfcs

Farm Household Allowance

Farmers and their partners in disaster-affected postcodes can claim Farm Household Allowance (FHA) with minimal information. Applicants will not need to supply verification of income and assets for 13 weeks. FHA can be granted as long as Proof of Identity is established and with a verbal declaration of the person's estimated financial position.

Further information on accessing FHA is available at www.humanservices.gov.au/individuals/services/centrelink/farm-household-allowance

What do I do with dead or injured stock?

The Government is deploying veterinarians to work with states and territories to undertake livestock assessments and attend to the welfare of injured livestock and other animals. More information is available at www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity/partnerships/nbc/nbepeg/interstate-deployment-arrangements

When humane destruction is necessary, appropriate methods must be used by people who have the experience, knowledge, skills and tools outlined in the Australian Animal Welfare Standards and Guidelines, available at www.animalwelfarestandards.net.au/

Check with your local and state authorities for advice on appropriate carcass disposal methods and specific health risks in your area.

What assistance is available for wildlife and injured native animals?

In the case of injured or orphaned wildlife, Australians are encouraged to follow the advice of registered wildlife carer organisations. Nationwide, you can contact the Wildlife Rescue Australia 24-hour call centre on 1300 596 457 or at www.wildliferescue.net.au. The RSPCA provides contacts for organisations in each state and territory at bit.ly/wildlifecarers.

What other disaster recovery support is the Commonwealth providing?

A range of relief and recovery assistance is available under the Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements (DRFA) to bushfire affected communities, individuals, primary producers and small businesses. Depending on where you live, this assistance may include financial support for emergency assistance and housing damage, and recovery grants and concessional interest rate loans for small businesses and primary producers. DRFA assistance is administered by State Governments. Further information on the specific assistance available in each state is on the DisasterAssist website www.disasterassist.gov.au

I have an insurance policy and need to make a claim. What do I do?

Talk to your insurance company as soon as possible about how to make a claim. The contact numbers for major insurers are:

- NRMA: 132 132
- Suncorp: 132 524
- QBE: 133 723
- Allianz: 131 013
- Zurich: 132 687

The Insurance Council of Australia is also operating a 24 hour hotline 1800 734 621 to help with information about claims and recovery.

I am having issues paying my home loan/credit card. Who should I contact?

A range of banks have announced measures to support people experiencing financial difficulties. You should contact your financial institution to discuss your circumstances and to see what financial assistance is available.

What support is available for my business?

A range of relief and recovery assistance is available to small businesses, administered by State Governments. If you have been directly impacted by the bushfires, you may be eligible for recovery grants and/or concessional interest rate loans depending on where you live. Visit DisasterAssist at www.disasterassist.gov.au

Where do I go for information about my employment entitlements and obligations?

You should contact the Fair Work Ombudsman. The Fair Work Ombudsman can give you information about your leave entitlements, including personal/carer's leave, annual leave and community service leave, and information for employers who are unable to operate. The Fair Work Ombudsman has set up a Bushfires across Australia web page www.fairwork.gov.au/about-us/news-and-media-releases/website-news/bushfires-across-australia, or you can contact the Fair Work Ombudsman on 13 13 94.

My Medicare card has been lost or damaged, can I still see a doctor?

You can still see a doctor without a Medicare card. The doctor is able to call Medicare and our Medicare Service Officers can assist them to obtain your relevant Medicare details. If you need to visit a public hospital, hospital staff can also contact Medicare on behalf of the doctor to obtain your relevant Medicare details.

How can I access Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme medicines if I do not have my Medicare, DVA or Centrelink card?

If you do not have your Medicare, DVA or Centrelink card, ask your pharmacist to ring the PBS inquiry line on 132 290 (option 1) for assistance with your Medicare or concessional details.

How can I access medicines if I do not have my prescriptions?

If you do not have a valid prescription, your pharmacist may be able to supply a limited amount of medicine to you under emergency supply arrangements. Ask your pharmacist for more details, or contact the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme information line for further information: 1800 020 613

What to do if power remains down?

If your power is out, you should contact your electricity distribution company. These companies manage the poles and wires that supply electricity. Your electricity distribution company can help with information about your outage.

In fire affected areas these companies are:

Any NDIS participant who needs assistance with their disability supports due to the bushfire situation is encouraged to contact 1800 800 110 to discuss their circumstances.

More information is available at www.ndis.gov.au/news/4143-bushfires-information-and-support.

How can bushfire smoke affect my health?

Smoke contains fine particles that can affect your health. Smoke can be more dangerous for people with existing lung and heart conditions like asthma, emphysema or angina. People with these conditions should avoid outdoor physical activity when there's smoke around. If you have asthma, you should follow your Asthma Action Plan and keep your asthma medication with you. The best way to reduce exposure to smoke is to stay indoors with the doors and windows shut.

How can I find out about air quality in my area?

For long periods of smoke haze, it may not be possible to stay indoors all the time. Monitoring your local air quality can help you find the right time to go outside when the risk is lowest.

Affected passport holders should call the Australian Passport Information Service (APIS) on 131 232.

I would like to make a tax deductible donation to assist with the relief efforts. What entities are accepting tax deductible donations?

The Australian Government is compiling a list of registered charities which are accepting tax deductible donations for bushfire relief and recovery. This list will be added to on the National Bushfire Recovery Agency website over coming days: pmc.gov.au/domestic-policy/national-bushfire-recovery-agency

If you are a registered charity with gift recipient status working to support bushfire recovery efforts, please contact the Australian Treasury at dgr@treasury.gov.au if your charity does not appear on the list.

Reporting bushfire scams

Scamwatch is warning the community to be careful when making donations to support bushfire charities and fund raising initiatives. Unfortunately during times of natural disasters scammers will pretend to represent legitimate or well-known charities or fund raising organisations, or set up their own fake fund raising pages on social media or fund raising platforms.

The community can report scams to Scamwatch at www.scamwatch.gov.au

The ACCC has also set up a dedicated bushfire scams to report bushfire related scams. People can call 1300 795 995 to report bushfire scams.
